Sirach 36:1-17

A Prayer for God's People

ⁱCome to our aid, O God of the universe, and put all the nations in dread of you!

ⁱⁱRaise your hand against the heathen, that they may realize your power.

ⁱⁱⁱAs you have used us to show them your holiness, so now use them to show us your glory.

^{iv}Thus they will know, as we know, that there is no God but you.

^vGive new signs and work new wonders; show forth the splendor of your right hand and arm;

^{vi}Rouse your anger, pour out wrath, humble the enemy, scatter the foe.

^{vii}Hasten the day, bring on the time;

⁹crush the heads of the hostile rulers.

⁸Let raging fire consume the fugitive, and your people's oppressors meet destruction.

¹⁰Gather all the tribes of Jacob, that they may inherit the land as of old, ¹¹Show mercy to the people called by your name; Israel, whom you named your first-born.

¹²Take pity on your holy city, Jerusalem, your dwelling place.

¹³Fill Zion with your majesty, your temple with your glory.

¹⁴Give evidence of your deeds of old; fulfill the prophecies spoken in your name, ¹⁵Reward those who have hoped in you, and let your prophets be proved true.

¹⁶Hear the prayer of your servants, for you are ever gracious to your people;

¹⁷Thus it will be known to the very ends of the earth that you are the eternal God.

II.
⁵ LORD of hosts, how long will you burn with anger while your people pray?

⁶ You have fed them the bread of tears, made them drink tears in abundance.

⁷ You have left us to be fought over by our neighbors; our enemies deride us.

⁸ O LORD of hosts, restore us; let your face shine upon us, that we may be saved.

III.
⁹ You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove away the nations and planted it.

¹⁰ You cleared the ground; it took root and filled the land.

¹¹ The mountains were covered by its shadow, the cedars of God by its branches.

¹² It sent out boughs as far as the sea, shoots as far as the river.

¹³ Why have you broken down the walls, so that all who pass by pluck its fruit?

heaven and see; Attend to this vine,

¹⁶ the shoot your right hand has planted.

¹⁷ Those who would burn or cut it down-- may they perish at your rebuke.

¹⁸ May your help be with the man at your right hand, with the one whom you once made strong.

¹⁹ Then we will not withdraw from you; revive us, and we will call on your name.

²⁰ LORD of hosts, restore us; let your face shine upon us, that we may be saved.

III

¹¹ Love and truth will meet; justice and peace will kiss.

¹² Truth will spring from the earth; justice will look down from heaven.

¹³ The LORD will surely grant abundance; our land will yield its increase.

¹⁴ Prosperity will march before the Lord, and good fortune will follow behind.

Psalm 126

The Reversal of Zion's Fortune

I.
When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, then we thought we were dreaming.

² Our mouths were filled with laughter; our tongues sang for joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The LORD had done great things for them."

³ The LORD has done great things for us; Oh, how happy we were!

⁴ Restore again our fortunes, LORD, like the dry stream beds of the Negeb.

II.
⁵ Those who sow in tears will reap with cries of joy.

⁶ Those who go forth weeping, carrying sacks of seed, Will return with cries of joy, carrying their bundled sheaves.

¹⁴ The boar from the forest strips the vine;
the beast of the field feeds upon it.

¹⁵ Turn again, LORD of hosts; look down from

⁹I will listen for the word of God; surely the LORD will proclaim peace To his people, to the faithful, to those who trust in him.
Near indeed is salvation for the loyal;
